me: I like how my columns about important subjects get 0 comments and then nonsense like this gets 72 me: on a side note, my friend just sent me a reminder that Ariel Sharon is still alive and in that coma BushwickBK.com: I do that too!
BushwickBK.com: about once I year I say to my friend Ray BushwickBK.com: "hey remember Ariel Sharon?" BushwickBK.com: "still around" me: oh, send me his e-mail again, that Ray guy BushwickBK.com: raydardy@gmail.com BushwickBK.com: he commented on your column btw me: which one was it?
BushwickBK.com: Ray BushwickBK.com: haha me: I like the next-to-last comment in which it is noted that the blacks are viscous animals who will beat me up me: or rather, my future kiod BushwickBK.com: oh that's something that happened on Diego's thing BushwickBK.com: half the commenters told him that's what he gets for living in a neighborhood with savages me: yeah BushwickBK.com: I'm purposely delaying approval of comments so regulars get their shit in first, and to discourage people who linked through BushwickBK.com: also I don't have all fucking day to approve comments BushwickBK.com: did you see that UES snot BushwickBK.com: acting like 99% of the rest of NYC is not like Bushwick when in reality some 70% of it is BushwickBK.com: not as dirty but just as urban-hillbilly me: that's pretty low on the totem poll of ridiculous shit in the comments section me: I'll hold off and address them in the next column me: since this is clearly more important to everyone concerned than, say, media and political reform BushwickBK.com: hah me: looks like we got a bunch of linkage on this one me: Free Williamsburg, for instance BushwickBK.com: yeah BushwickBK.com: and bsed on the passage they chose, they like it

BushwickBK.com: hm, lots of nyms on he pm blog me: stop talking that Jap talk, I don't know what you just said BushwickBK.com: ok crazy BushwickBK.com: lots of pen names on the PM bog BushwickBK.com: blog BushwickBK.com: you me, this clark dude BushwickBK.com: the only full names me: we've only got like three people out of 70 using pen names thus far, so shouldn't be a problem; anyway, I have no problem with participants being anonymous BushwickBK.com: just noting that
